

Peccadillo Pictures presents three cult films about lesbian passion

THE PASSION TRILOGY

Desire / Such A Crime / Goodbye Emma Jo

DVD Release Date: August 9th Running Time: 140 mins
Cert: 18 RRP: £12.99

A tantalising trio of cult lesbian movies from lesbian directors Cheryl Newbrough and Jan Kroesen, about the headiest of passions and the women who desire them, this is an essential addition to any out woman's film library.

In Such A Crime, Skip is an undercover eco-agent whose raging libido threatens to blow her cover, until her boss assigns her to a case where her appetite for women actually proves an advantage. Goodbye Emma Jo sees Alex mourning the death of her beautiful lover. Then she meets Haley, a local dyke motor mechanic who knows only too well that a romantic tryst is the best way to mend a broken heart. Finally, Desire - An Erotic Fantasy Play is a slick and sensual erotic tale of three young women, their dreams, their fantasies, and the different paths they choose to explore both themselves and each other.
